

Log Book
entry

This Log Book was opened on September 9th 1952. The old Log Book was lost in the fire which destroyed the wooden buildings which accommodated the junior and Senior classes.

The fire broke out in the early hours of Wednesday May 30th.

All school records including Admission Register, Attendance Registers, and School Meals Registers were lost, the premises being completely gutted.

On the 31st May the scholars were accommodated as follows.

13 Boys transferred to the Boys School Billingham.

34 Boys and girls fixed up in the Cadet Hut on the Horva site at Billingham.

68 Junior and Infants retained at North Hyme and accommodated in the Old Building.
